The Town of Trinity is currently looking for interested individuals to become part of the Heritage Committee. The Committee members are to meet on a monthly basis as applications are received to review and make recommendation to Council. Interested individuals should be familiar with the Town of Trinity's Heritage Regulations and the Town Plan and have some general knowledge of construction.

The Heritage Area objectives are to preserve and enhance the historic townscape of Trinity; to preserve the historical integrity of the built heritage of Trinity; to encourage new development that is sensitive in scale, design and placement to the fabric of the historic townscape.

Interested individuals must apply in writing through provision of cover letter and resume detailing their education, professional and volunteer experience and detail their familiarity and interest in wanting to join the Heritage Committee.

Please submit on or before March 3rd, 2022.
